

LEADERSHIP SKILLS IN HIGHEST DEMAND

Dealing with Complexity, Ambiguity, Paradox, & Change

Leading in Complexity

The leadership skills in highest demand these days include dealing with complexity, ambiguity, paradox, and change.

Virtual Workshop

Organizations that are clear on values, culture, and adaptive leadership practices will be better positioned to innovate, attract employees, and weather change.

Drawing on Pat's 25 years as a consultant to organizations and executive teams, this workshop will equip participants with ways to address complexity in their own organizations. Participants will gain ideas to implement as well as the support, wisdom, and camaraderie of other participants.

April 4, 2024

8:30 am - 12:00 pm PST

Cost: $135 per person

Pat Hughes is the President of Trillium Leadership Consulting and is an enthusiastic strategic planning and change management consultant, facilitator, leadership educator and coach. She works with individuals, teams, and organizations to increase leadership capacity and generate positive results. Pat has authored three books related to Gracious Space, courageous collaboration, and equity.

To Register: trilliumleadership.com/trainings

Join Us Today